HART COUNTY'S FIRST FAMILIES

THE ATTEBERRYS OF HART COUNTY, KY

by
Marguerite Atteberry Emmons

From as early as 1803 until the present day, members of the Atteberry family have been residents of or tied to Hart County, Kentucky. This family's early roots have been the source of much speculation and misinformation. Earlier researchers, as well as the database for the Ancestral Files for the LDS have based their information on an earlier publication that contained many errors. As a result the incorrect information continues to spread. The following information is not based on that, but on careful research of the available records in England, Maryland, Virginia, South Carolina, and Kentucky. Where speculation and the best guess of the author and other researchers is involved, that is noted.

William Attebury, English Emigrant

The progenitor of most of the Atteberry/Atterbury families in America and of the ones who were early settlers of Kentucky appears first of all as a felon in London, England in 1732, the same year as Bishop Francis Atterbury's death. This William was born circa 1719, according to the best guess of later researchers and based on records in Virginia. He was a young man looking for a better life and a new chance when he was arrested for the minor theft of five yards of linsey-woolsey cloth worth about three shillings. As a result of the theft, he was deported from Newgate Prison 17 April 1733, aboard the ship, Patapscoe Merchant, captained by Darby Lux which was bound for the colonies. He was to serve a period of indentured labor, usually five to seven years. It is believed that this William is the same one whose baptismal record is recorded at St. Giles Cripplegate Church in London on 25 June 1710. Baptisms were recorded if an infant survived at least three to seven days.

William Attebury, Maryland Planter and Virginia Farmer

No records have been found of William's early days in America. It is assumed that he served a period of about seven years indenture with a Maryland planter and it is also assumed that he acquitted himself well. The next appearance of the Atteberry name occurs in the will of John Mitchell, of Prince George's County, Maryland written 1748, and probated 25 August 1752. He mentions as one of his heirs "Sarah Atteberry". Later records show that our William as married to a Sarah and it is assumed that this is the same Sarah. A Sarah Mitchell was baptized 21 August 1720, at St. Anne's Parish in Prince George's County, the daughter of John Mitchell and his wife, Elizabeth. In 1735 she first married Robert Yackley and bore him at least one child, a daughter named Elizabeth, who is also mentioned a John Mitchell's will. Thus we can assume that, sometime after 1740 and before the 1748 will, William courted and married Sarah Mitchell Yackley. As of the writing of her father's will, they had no children, or at least none were mentioned. Later records show them with as many as nine sons, the first born about 1744. There were no records of any daughters. In 1746 William received a land grant for 50 acres in Prince George's County, Maryland. In 1754 William sells his Maryland plantation, known as "Prince Spring" and buys land in Loudon County, Virginia where he first appears on the tithables in 1758. This is where his youngest son, and probably his eighth son, Thomas were born. The appearance of each of William's sons on the Virginia tithables as they reach the age of sixteen, coupled with later census records, allows us to guess their approximate year of birth. William continues to appear in Virginia and Loudon County records through 1765 when he sells some of his Loudon

County land to pay a debt. His widow Sarah appears alone on the tithables in 1769. Thus we assume William died between 1765 and 1769. Sarah continues to appear on land records as "the widow Atterberry" until at least 1772. Is assumed she died there soon after, certainly by 1790. As of 1790, all of Sarah's family had moved from Virginia to Chester County, South Carolina. Some began this exodus as early as 1785, while others remained in Virginia for a few more years. It is interesting that although the Atteberry family sent several years traveling through North Carolina, they left no permanent record there. No North Carolina records mentioning them have been found. The following list of children is based on proximity, legal records, and first appearance on the Virginia tithables. Of the nine sons, three died in Chester County, the remaining six came to Kentucky where all but the two youngest died. These two moved on to Missouri where they died. Descendants of all nine brothers spent time in Kentucky.

Children of William Atterbury and Sarah Mitchell:

1. Michael Atterberry, born abt. 1744 Maryland, died abt. 1820-1830 Grayson Co., KY. Michael first appears on the VA tithables in 1760. He received a land grant in South Carolina in 1785. The 1790 census of Orangeburg Dist., SC lists him with ten children. His wife is unknown. He next appears on the 1810 and 1820 Grayson Co., KY census. He is the only Atteberry reported to have given aid and support to the Continental Army during the Revolution.
2. William Atterberry, Jr., born abt. 1746 Maryland, died 1794 Chester Co., SC. The 1790 census of Chester Co. shows him with nine children, who are listed in his will. His wife was Bridget (Murry/Murray). One of his sons is the Thomas Atterberry who married Elizabeth Clements.
3. Charles Atterberry, born abt. 1747 Maryland, d, abt. 1821-29 Grayson Co., KY. Charles married Sarah Mitchell (same name as his mother) and had as many as 14 children. Only 9 have been identified. Most of his descendants left Kentucky for Illinois. One family, which remained in Grayson Co., KY, figures later in Hart County records.
4. Richard Atterberry, born abt. 1748 Maryland, died abt. 1808 Hardin County, KY. Richard was married to Rebecca Bennett and the 1790 census of SC show him with six children. He sold his SC property in 1795. His will is found in Hardin County dated 4 October 1806 and probated 13 July 1813. He may have had as many as fourteen children. One of his descendants wrote the Illinois Atteberry book.
5. Nathan Atterberry, born abt. 1750 Maryland, died 1796 Chester Co., SC. His estate was probated March 1796. Nathan was married to Patty or Patsy, who later married Abraham Miers/Myers in Hardin Co., KY 2 Aug. 1805. The 1790 census of SC shows him with 4 children.
6. John Atterberry, born abt. 1751 Maryland, died 1806 Chester Co., SC. John's wife was Sarah "Sally" Hill and various records show him to have had eleven children. An estate probation as begun in 1806 but never completed. John's son, Jesse would come to Kentucky and marry his cousin, Levisa, daughter of Thomas, in Hardin Co. in 1814.
7. Edward Atterberry, born abt. 1753 Maryland, died 1824 Daviess Co., KY. Edward is first listed on the tithables in 1769 and married twice (Keziah and Mary, widow of George Little). Census records show him with six children. By 1810 Edward was in Hardin Co., KY before moving on to Daviess Co. A quit title suit against the Atteberry heirs was filed 4 Sept. 1845 by J. C. Thomas.
8. Thomas Atterberry, born abt. 1755 Maryland or Loudon Co., VA. He first appears on the tithables in 1769. He continues to appear on the tithables until 1789, when it is assumed he moves to Chester Co., SC. Thomas later settles in Hardin and Hart Cos., Kentucky. More about Thomas in the next Quarterly.
9. James Atterberry, born abt. 1758 Virginia, died abt. 1843 Monroe Co., MO according to his descendants. Married Dorcas Wilkerson of England. James had nine children. By 1817 he reportedly migrated to Missouri.

Descendants of WILLIAM ATTERBURY

1. WILLIAM1 ATTERBURY, son of (Father Unknown) and of (Mother Unknown), born 1710/1715 St. James Liberty, Westminster, Middlesex, England; died 1766/1768 Loudoun County, Virginia. He was married SARAH MITCHELL, daughter of John Mitchell and of Elizabeth -----.

William Atterbury was a labourer of the parish of St. James Liberty, Westminster, Middlesex, and was tried on 31st January 1732. He was a prisoner in Newgate Prison in the reign of George II.

He was committed by Ol. Lambert, esquire, on oath of Frederick Humble for stealing out of the shop of George Cole, five yards of Linsey Woolsey, worth three shillings.

It was common practice for young, healthy prisoners to be deported under bond to the American Colonies. Some 20,000 were shipped from Newgate Prison alone in the period 1615-

1775. "Contractors" were paid by the crown to provide transportation and arrange for the bonded felons to work as indentured laborers.

After 7 or 14 years, depending on the severity of their crime, they were then free to pursue their own interests.

Our William was deported under this scheme. He was probably 18-20 years old at the time, making his birth year about 1710-1715. It is speculated that many young but destitute men committed minor crimes for the sole purpose of securing transportation to America. William boarded the ship "Patapscope Merchant" April 17, 1733, along with 98 other prisoners. This was the fifth of eight such trips for the Patapscope, all but one commanded by Captain Darby Lux, and with the destination Baltimore, Maryland.

William undoubtedly served his "sentence", in all likelihood seven years, as a laborer on a Maryland plantation. He thus was free of his bond in the year 1740 and then probably continued as a paid laborer in the same area, if not the same plantation.

He married Sarah Mitchell

Sarah was the daughter of John and Elizabeth Mitchell of Prince George County, Maryland. Sarah was born August 31, 1720, in Queen Anne's Parish. She was first married to Robert Yackley, June 3, 1735. By this marriage she had one daughter, Elizabeth Yackley, who was living with the elder Mitchells in 1748.

Robert Yackley probably died young as Sarah was married to William Atterbury about 1742.

1. WILLIAM ATTENBURY, son of (Father Unknown) and of (Mother Unknown), born 1700/1712 St. James Liberty, Westminster, Middlesex, England; died 1766/1768 London County, Virginia. He was married SARAH MITCHELL, daughter of John Mitchell and of Elizabeth -----.

William Attensbury was a laborer of the parish of St. James Liberty, Westminster, Middlesex, and was tried on 11th January 1742. He was a prisoner in Newgate Prison in the reign of George II.

He was committed by O. Lambert, esquire, on oath of Frederick Hamble for stealing out of the shop of George Cole, five yards of linen, Woolsey, worth three shillings.

It is speculated that many young but destitute men committed minor crimes for the sole purpose of securing transportation to America. William boarded the ship "Hatchegogue Merchant" April 17, 1713, along with 98 other prisoners. This was the fifth of eight such trips for the Hatchegogue, all but one commanded by Captain Henry Lux, and with the destination Baltimore, Maryland.

William undoubtedly served his "sentence", in all likelihood seven years, as a laborer on a Maryland plantation. He thus was free of his bond in the year 1720 and then probably continued as a paid laborer in the same area, if not the same plantation.

He married Sarah Mitchell.

Sarah was the daughter of John and Elizabeth Mitchell of Prince George County, Maryland. Sarah was born August 11, 1710, in Queen Anne's Parish. She was first married to Robert Yackley, June 3, 1725. By this marriage she had one daughter, Elizabeth Yackley, who was living with the elder Mitchell in 1748.

Robert Yackley probably died young as Sarah was married to William Attensbury about 1742.

Descendants of WILLIAM ATTERBURY

No documentation has been found of their marriage. Sarah inherited one shilling current money from her father's estate.

11. ANNA3 ATTEBERRY, (RICHARD2, WILLIAM1), born 1781 South Carolina; died 1840 1844 Wayne County, Illinois. She was married REASON BLISSETT.

There is no proof that Anna was a d/o Richard and Rebecca, however, the Blissetts and Atteberry's moved from Chester Co.SC to Hardin Co.KY at about the same time. After their move to Wayne Co.IL, she was always living in the same vicinity as the other Atteberrys and along with William and Mary (Atteberry) Watkins helped organize the Hopewell Baptist Church - east of Barnhill, IL.

Reason Blissett, along with William Watkins, son-in-law of Richard Atteberry, was involved in the estate of Richard Atteberry in 1813 in Hardin Co.KY.

Two daughters of Richard Atteberry - Elizabeth Gray and Mary Watkins - named their daughters Anna. Two sons of Richard Atteberry - Thomas and Asa - named sons Reason. Perhaps for a brother-in-law?

Reason and Anna Blissett came to Wayne County, Illinois, from Hardin County, Kentucky, by 1818. He bought the W 1/2 of the SE 1/4 of Sec. 5, T3S, R8E (Barnhill Twp., Wayne Co.IL. 9 Dec 1818. However, 23 July 1819, the heirs of Rezin Blissett bought the E 1/2 of the SE 1/4 of Sec. 5, T3S, R8E, making 160 acres all together. This land is located about one mile east of Rt. 45 - from the Barnhill Road, south of Fairfield, IL. (Taken from records of Virginia Anderson, a descendant.)

Reason's heirs are named in an Indenture - Wayne Co.IL - Bk.68 pp.68-9 - dated 17 Oct 1836 - Re-recorded after the courthouse fire in 1886. From HEIRS OF REZEN BLISSETT to Lapsley Hall.

ALLEN ATTENBURY (ATTENBURY, MICHAEL, WILLIAM), born 19 Jan 1818 Kentucky; died 12 Jan 1878 Jasper Township, Wayne County, Illinois; buried West Cemetery, Massillon Township, Wayne County, Illinois. He was married (1) SARAH ELIZABETH, daughter of ELIAS BLISSARD and of Saranah ---; and was married (2) MARY J. ---; and was married (3) MARY ANN ---.

Allen and Sarah were probably married about 1848. Sarah had died between August 1854 (date of court case) and 32 Feb 1855 when Allen and wife Mary J. deeded land to Daniel Crighton. In 1860 Allen and his second wife Mary J. were living in Warren County, MO, Elkhorn Township, Pettis County, MO. In 1870 he was living back in Wayne County in the Jasper Township with his third wife, Mary A. Nathaniel A. Gray was appointed guardian of Allen's two youngest children, Loretta and William Allen, when he died in 1878.

It is a possibility that Mary J. was a sister to Adeline (Dean) Gray, based on Allen and Mary J. having a daughter named Adeline.

Children of ALLEN and SARAH (ELIZABETH) ATTENBURY were as follows:

75. I. MARY, born 1848.

There is no solid proof that Silas was the son of Nathan and Mariah, but according to the early census records he could fit into their family. In 1850 Silas was living with Soloman and was listed as insane. In February 1855 he joined the Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church at the same time Nathan joined. Since he lived among the rest of Nathan's family, it is believed he was also a son and probably a twin to Elias as they were both born in 1830, according to census records. Elias and Silas may have been twins. They both appear to have been born in 1830. Nathan Atteberry was the administrator for his son Elias' estate. David W. Atteberry, his brother was appointed guardian of Elias' four children. A fifth child had passed away before Elias. Mary Angeline, in her letter to the Wayne County Press, gave the information that she and Elias had five children, three girls and two boys.
